JACK STARTS TO WORK IN EARNEST FOR COMING BOUT

Goes Through Eight Fast Rounds With Only Half Minute Rest Intervals.

By Associated Press: ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 20.—Jack Dempsey increased his boxing to eight full three minute rounds Monday for the first time since he started training, taking on four heavy sparring partners for two sessions each with only a rest of thirty seconds between rounds.

Dempsey evidently had read what the boxing experts had written concerning his workout Sunday, which was regarded as slow because he set a warm pace for the quartet that faced him, upsetting the rugged and experienced Larry Williams for the first time since the big blonde heavy-weight joined the camp. Eddie O'Hara, who gave the champion considerable bother Sunday, repeatedly fainted for openings but Dempsey kept on top of the fast moving New York middleweight and did not give him an opportunity to get set. O'Hara failed with his one-two punch, with which he managed to hit Dempsey Sunday.

Battling Glee Backward
In rapid succession Dempsey boxed O'Hara, Battling Glee, Williams and Jack Roselli in the order named. Glee who was on the floor three times and had two teeth knocked loose when he faced Dempsey for the first time last Friday, apparently had lost some of his ambition when he crawled through the ropes Monday afternoon.

He was on the defensive from the start and took three steps backward for every one forward. Once the champion crowded the Memphis negro into a corner and all but knocked him flat with a punch on the back of the neck. Dempsey was in a fighting mood after he had chased Glee around the ring for two rounds and when Williams got into the ring the champion tried to upset him. Williams, until Monday had managed to keep his feet and give Dempsey the best workouts, but he ran into a tornado of hooks and was sent sprawling into the ropes from a right to the chin in the second round. Dempsey staggered him with a left and then crashed over a right that dropped him to a sitting position.

Referee Situation The Same
The referee situation still is unsettled. Jack Kearns, manager of the champion, plans to leave for New York today for a conference with Tex Rickard, the promoter of the Jersey City contest, in an effort to clear up the situation. Kearns is opposed to the action of the New Jersey boxing commission, in its desire to name the referee. He says he wants a voice in the selection but is not opposed to the choice of any referee holding a license in the state.

Cincinnati and Pittsburg To Replay Protested Game

By Associated Press: NEW YORK, June 20.—Replay of part of the protested victory of the Cincinnati Nationals over Pittsburg on May 28, by 4 to 3 in ten innings has been ordered by Pres't John A. Heydler.

Pittsburg declared that Pitcher Leque of Cincinnati while in a temper had thrown the ball toward the Red Sox dugout and that Barnhardt of Pittsburg was thrown out while trying for third after the ball was interfered with by a visiting player on the bench, whereas a "block" ball should have been declared.

Pres't Heydler ruled that the part game should be played before the scheduled game of June 30, with the score tied 3 to 3, in the last half of the eighth, two out, with Barnhardt on third and Cuthbert at the bat.

COLONELS BAT HARD

By Associated Press: LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 20.—After Columbus tied the score in the sixth inning Louisville drove Sherman out of the box and batted three runs in off Odenwald in the next inning, taking the first game, 7 to 2. Sanders, though wild, proved effective. Score: Columbus, 7; Louisville, 2.

By Associated Press: ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 20.—To Charles Hoffer of the Philmont Country club of Philadelphia Monday fell the honor of returning the low score over the old course in the first day's play in the qualifying round for the British open golf championship. Hoffer made the 18 holes in 75, after he had missed putts on the last three holes. The record for the course is 71 and is held by George Duncan, the British open champion.

The low score of the day over the Eden course went to Joseph H. Kirkwood, the Australian open champion, who also had a 75.

All the 16 American contestants—both amateurs and professionals—turned in good cards for the early round. After Hoffer, Bobby Jones of Atlanta, had the low score for the Americans, a 76, while following Jones came George McLean of the Grassy Sprain club of New York, and Jack Hutchison of the Glenview Country club, Chicago, each with 77.

HILL TOPS WIN.
The hill top baseball team defeated the Perky Cubs in a fast game Sunday afternoon at Leeper park by the score of 12 to 9.

The game was featured by Hagen, who clouted a homer and four doubles for the H. T. Batteries: H. T.—Helms and Miltenberger; P. C.—Seach and Wortman.

Athletic Head Says "Put the Champions to Work"

WILLIAM MULDOON

By Associated Press: NEW YORK, June 20.—Judge Landis has a rival. As a sport dictator, William Muldoon, new chairman of the New York State Athletic Commission, has him backed off the boards.

Boxers, wrestlers and other professional athletes are in a panic over Muldoon's dictum that they've got to go out and get themselves useful jobs.

"I agree with Governor Miller," says Muldoon, "that too many youths are giving up regular positions to live off society as professional athletes."

"Boxing and wrestling and other forms of physical exercise are most beneficial to the human race, but I deplore the present tendency to run the professional side on such an enormous and rapidly growing scale. I feel that something must be done to check it."

Muldoon has decreed that "it will be a long time before there is another wrestling bout in New York State."

He used to be a wrestler in his youth and he declares present wrestling is a disgrace to the name.

Alarmed critics on the Muldoon policy are painfully visioning a decree sending Jack Dempsey to work between fights.

"It's suggested that Carpenter ought to be forced to get a regular job while in this country, perhaps as a model in a haberdashery shop."

Willie Hoppe, billiard champion, might fall under Muldoon's decree, and be forced to get a job as a piano player in a song factory, which would have the double advantage of saving his hands and keeping him in touch with the ivories.

The recommendation has been made that Stanislaus Zybasko might find congenial and invigorating day work rolling barrels at the Bush Terminal, while Babe Ruth could take the course of professional athletics off his baseball activities by getting an outside job as a chauffeur, for which court records show him well qualified.

At the end of three rounds, Jeannette remarked afterward that the Frenchman was better than he ever had been on the defense.

Has Improved Greatly.
"He has improved 100 per cent in all departments of the game since our fight in Paris," he said. "He can hit twice as hard and he is twice as hard to hit. In addition to this he can take a world of punishment; in fact he always was a hog for punishment. The harder you hit him the broader his smile."

A crowd of several hundred persons saw the challenger work; some of them were newspaper men and most of the others were invited guests. There were about 50 boys and girls from the public school at Great Neck, Long Island. They occupied ring-side seats alongside a score of wounded veterans who were brought on stretchers in ambulances from Polytechnic hospital in Manhattan. Some were members of the Manhasset Trap Shooters' club, whose grounds adjoin the training camp, and the rest were friends and acquaintances.

Gumbert Smith was one of the most interested spectators. He praised the challenger for his speed and hitting ability but ventured the opinion that he was not good enough to beat the champion.

Sympathy for War Vet.
When Georges came from the house to the gymnasium he espied a legless veteran of the late war sitting on a stool by the ring. Calling to Manager Descamps to wait, he pushed his way through the crowd and shook hands with the veteran. "Hello, buddy," he said, "glad to see you."

The sparring was followed by 15 minutes of rope jumping and work on the mat, the latter for development of the abdominal muscles.

When the work was finished the crowd applauded and Georges curtsied gracefully. He donned his robe, waved his hand, called "Good night," and skipped to the house.
